WASHINGTON, D. C., WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1926

HATCHET HOST TO ONE SECTION FOR I. N. A. GATHERING

Delegates From Five Colleges to Meet Here December 17 and 18

BANQUET WILL OPEN MEETING DECEMBER 17

Business Session to be Held Following Day: Papers to be Presented, Talks Given

The University Hatchet will play host to the delegates from five colleges at a sectional conference of the Intercollegiate Newspaper Association of the Middle Atlantic States, to be held at George Washington University December 17 and 18. Word has just been received from J. Gordon Risdale of Lehigh University, president of the Association, setting the date for the gathering.

Colleges who are expected to send delegates to Washington for the convention are Swarthmore, Haverford, Delaware, Ursinus, and Gettysburg. Besides the schools named above, representatives from Catholic University, Georgetown University, and American University will be invited to attend. The president of the association will also probably come to Washington for the meeting.

Four sectional conferences will be held concurrently. The association includes about twenty-five colleges of the middle Atlantic section of the country and these are divided into four groups for the fall get-togethers. A convention of all member papers is held in the spring, and will take place at Lehigh University, Bethlehem, Pa., in 1927.

To Hold Banquet

The local program is in the hands of the University Hatchet Board, with Howard M. Baggett, editor, as chairman. It is planned to hold a banquet the evening of December 17, and a business session the following day, probably in the afternoon.

Well-known local newspapermen will be asked to speak at the banquet and the business session. All members of the Hatchet staff will be invited to attend and may do so on the payment of the banquet fee, the amount of which will be announced later. Papers will be presented by delegates and members of the Hatchet staff at the business session on various phases of scholastic newspaper work.

The Hatchet has been a member of the association since 1919, and has taken an active interest in its affairs for the past three years. A delegate was sent to the convention held at Ursinus College in 1925, and two delegates represented the Hatchet at the meeting held at Swarthmore College last spring.

SOPH GIRLS WILL LEAD BIG ENDOWMENT DRIVE

Committee of Second-Year Women Meets To Discuss Plans For New Buildings

The Endowment Fund Committee of the girls of the Class of '29, which met Thursday, December 2, with President Lewis and Dean Rose, made some interesting plans for its year's work.

President Lewis showed the girls the plans and drawings of the new building, Unit Three, which is soon to be erected. The $10,000, which these Sophomore girls are determined to obtain, will be used for an alcove in the library of the new unit.

Every girl of the Class of '29 is to be visited by a member of the committee, and she will be asked to raise a certain quota. The committee states that $1,000 has already been pledged to the fund.

Regular meetings of the committee are to be held throughout the year to boost the spirit of the workers, and to make reports as to progress. The committee consists of Billie Wright, chairman; Mary Louise Beard, Virginia Strickland, Helen Taylor, and Margaret Loeffler.

Gifts Received For W. A. C. Xmas Barrel

Clothing, Food, Toys and Money to Be Sent to Large Family By Students

Gifts are now dropping in the Christmas barrel in the Women's Building for the poor family to which G. W. students are playing Santa Claus this year. The Women's Advisory Council is in charge of the barrel, which will soon be filled.

The family, chosen with the help of the Juvenile Protective Association, is deserving of all help. The mother and father, as well as the six children, are tubercular. Their only income is whatever the father and two oldest boys are able to earn when they are well. The boys are aged 17, 15, and 8 years; the girls, 18, 8, and 4. Any clothing to fit these children will be appreciated.

Besides clothing, food that will keep, books, toys, or money will be gladly received at Dean Rose's office.

STUDENTS LEAD CHAPEL EXERCISES ON MONDAY

Public Speaking Class Entertains With Snappy Program

Several new G. W. songs were introduced at Monday chapel by Bob Harmon, Director of the Men's Glee Club.

The remainder of the program was devoted to the public speaking class. Daniel Boone presented a bunch of snappy jokes, Harriman Dorsey gave a reading entitled "Jim Bloodstone," Marjorie Mothershead followed with three minutes of "Incidents," and the "Philosophy of Buddha," by Nancy Griswold, completed the program.

ADVISORY BODY HOLDS MEETING

Is First Informal Discussion of Students Affairs With President Lewis

TO MEET SEMI-MONTHLY

Class Presidents, Fraternity and Sorority Gr. ups, and a Representative of the Hatchet Included

Meeting for the first time this year, the Student Advisory Committee conferred with President Lewis last Tuesday night. Important matters pertaining to student affairs were discussed.

The Student Advisory Committee was instituted last year, and has as its purpose the settlement of various problems of the student body through the method of informal conferences with the administrative head of the University. Regular meetings are held once every two weeks.

Each department of the University is represented on the committee. The presidents of all senior classes, the presidents of the Pan-Hellenic Association and the Interfraternity Council, and a member of the Hatchet Board of Editors make up the personnel of the body.

The president of the senior class of the Law School has not yet been elected. He will represent the Law School on the committee.

Gate and Key Society To Hold Dance Dec. 11

Cyril B. Upham of Phi Kappa Sigma Fraternity, Initiated at Last Meeting

Gate and Key Honorary Interfraternity Organization will hold its first dance of the year on Saturday, December 11, at the Delta Tau Delta house, on Columbia Road. At a meeting held recently this dance was voted and general plans for the coming year were made. Election to membership will be held at the next meeting of the year.

Gate and Key made known that it is favorable to the Fraternity Row proposition and will cooperate in the accomplishment of the plan. Cyril B. Upham of Phi Kappa Sigma was led through the ordeals and mysteries of the initiation ceremonies at the meeting. All old members of Gate and Key will be notified of the dance which is expected to be one of the best affairs of the year. John Ketcham, of Sigma Phi Epsilon, is chairman of the dance committee.

PROTZMAN ENDS SERIES OF DIONYSIAN LECTURES

To Speak on "Dramas of Cornelle and Racine" Before Club

Dean Henning, though in the hospital recovering from his operation, has arranged for Professor Protzman, of the French Department to represent him in the fifth and last Dionysian lecture, "The Dramas of Cornelle and Racine," which will be given Wednesday, December 8, 1926, in the Rehearsal Room, Basement Stockton Hall. The change in date resulted from Dean Henning's inability to appear personally before the club and deliver his address.

The Varsity members will be chosen after the lecture as announced for last Wednesday night. A business session will be held also. Persons wishing places on the Dionysian producing staff of 1927 should communicate with Kermit Girdner, president.

Maj. Woodhull Drops In Office And Reminisces On Old Home

Building Now Occupied as Treasurer's Office of the Arts and Science Department Was Once the Property of Board of Trustee Member

Ghosts of old-fashioned ladies in hoop skirts tripping down the broad stairs and curtsying to white-wigged, lace decked dandies of the '50's were raised last Friday when Major Woodhull of the Board of Trustees walked in the back door of the Registrar's Office with the plea, "May I look about a bit? This used to be my old home."

The girls in the office gathered around with interest when the Major began to tell about the early history of 2033 G Street, now housing the Registrar's Office and the Treasurer's Office.

"This," he said, "as he stood in the central room of the Registrar's Office, 'was my old library. The walls were lined with books and a big fire place opened there where that file cabinet now stands. You can see parts of the old cases there in the corners now."

New Windows

"Those windows have all been cut through since my time for the one at the back was the only light we had for these two rooms. In front of the arched door was the best parlor and across the hall was the dining room reaching to the back of the house. The kitchen and servants' quarters were below stairs and the second floor was devoted to the bedrooms." Visions of four poster beds seemed to replace the desks and filing cabinets as he talked.

"The tile floor there in the hall was laid in 1854 and has not been touched since. 'The house was built a good bit before the war,' he stated as he walked about seeing the changes that had been made. 'He went on to say that he makes frequent visits to the office to keep in touch with his old home.

Questions were fired at him by his interested audience. Among them was: "What about the outside of the building?" "That plot of grass in the back," said the Major, looking out of the back window, "there where the tennis court now lies, was the stable. Our horses and coaches were housed there until the place was turned over to the University.

Memories Flit Back

"And that reminds me," he said as memories seemed to flit through his mind at the mention of these old buildings, "George Washington rode in one of the coaches which were in the stable when the building became the property of the University. I wonder what could have happened to it. It should have been erected on a pedestal as a monument to the historic background of the school."

He went on to say that around the building had been gardens of old fashioned flowers and shrubs with large trees on both sides. Major Woodhull mentioned the names of several well-known people of the Civil War period who lived in similar houses in the vicinity. The Administration Building, the Architects' Building and Lister Hall were residences of Major Woodhull's friends shortly after the War.

That the University has a rich historic background, seemed to be the epitome of Major Woodhull's impromptu speech. As he went out with his cane tapping on the tile of the old floor the ghosts of the past tripped back up the broad stairs leaving behind only visions of the splendor of by-gone years.

ALCHEMISTS JOIN ALPHA CHI SIGMA

Installed as Alpha Pi Chapter of National Chemical Fraternity December 4

FORTY MEN ARE INITIATED

Ceremony in Charge of Dr. W. S. Ritchie, Grand Master of Ceremonies of Fraternity

Forty active and alumni Alchemists of G. W. University, were initiated as charter members of Alpha Pi Chapter of Alpha Chi Sigma, national chemical fraternity, at a very impressive and symbolic installation ceremony in Corcoran Hall, Saturday, December 4, at 3 o'clock. The installation was in charge of Dr. W. S. Ritchie, of the University of Missouri, Grand Master of Ceremonies of Alpha Chi Sigma, who was assisted by Dr. F. C. Vilbrandt, District Deputy of Alpha Chi Sigma, an initiation team from Rho Chapter at the University of North Carolina, and several members of the local professional chapter of Alpha Chi Sigma.

At a model business meeting immediately following the installation ceremony, the following officers were installed: President, Howard A. Jones; Vice President, George Graff; Treasurer, Hugh Riley; Recorder-Historian, William C. Spielman; and Reporter, Warren L. Briggs.

Many at Banquet

About 65 members of Alpha Chi Sigma attended the banquet at the Hotel Hamilton at 7 o'clock. The dining room was decorated in chrome yellow and dark blue, the colors of Alpha Chi Sigma. The table was strewn with red carnations, the fraternity flower. Each one present wore a red carnation also.

The programs were cleverly made up, representing a benzene ring, a symbol familiar to all chemists. Mr. Homer Winkler gave the welcome in behalf of the new Alpha Pi chapter. Dr. W. S. Ritchie responded, emphasizing the responsibilities of the new chapter, and what was expected of it. Dr. F. C. Vilbrandt sounded a note of optimism, and painted a bright future. Dr. R. S. McBride, assistant editor of "Chemical Metallurgical News," congratulated the new chapter and extended his best wishes for the coming year. Mr. Jesse Barnes represented the local professional chapter of Alpha Chi Sigma. Dr. Charles Munroe, the "grand old man of chemistry," entertained with reminiscences of the chemical department during its infancy and early development. Dr. Mackall spoke in behalf of the G. W. Faculty. Dr. Joseph H. Roe stressed the cooperation and loyalty now existing and which must continue to exist between the faculty and the students. Mr. Paul Brattain showed the way to growth through work.

Among the charter members are the following men on the chemical faculty of G. W.: Dr. Charles E. Munroe, dean emeritus, Dr. Colin M. Mackall, Dr. Hiram C. McNeil, Dr. Edwin A. Hill, Dr. Joseph H. Roe, Mr. Paul H. Brattain, and Mr. Raymond M. Hann.

COLONIALS NAME GRID OPPONENTS

To Face Hardest Schedule in Year; New Schools Added To List

PENN STATE AGAIN SLATED

Rutgers and Fordham New Opponents; C. C. N. Y. Will Be Season Opener in New York

Coach H. Watson Crum, director of athletics at George Washington University, officially announced the 1927 football schedule Friday.

Due to the improved showing of the team this year officials were able to retain the games with the strong Penn State, Ursinus, and Catholic University eleven. They were in a position to book games with other nationally-known teams such as Rutgers and Fordham, who accepted Colonial bids.

Only two dates remain open and Coach Crum is dickering for games with Bethany and Geneva, to be played here on October 8 or November 12. Geneva, Bo McMillan's fighting aggregation, beat Harvard this year.

One-Year Rule Effective

The one-year rule will be inaugurated at G. W. next year, adding prestige to school teams and enabling them to meet the foremost teams in the country.

Guy Hotell will have graduated and is the only man who will be lost to the team. He was captain in 1923 and 1924.

The first game will be played in Gotham against the City College of New York on October 1. This year the Colonials made a last minute effort which resulted in a 10-7 finish in their favor.

Either Bethany or Geneva will be met in Washington on October 8. This encounter should prove to be one of

Additional Gifts Are Received For Unit 3

Friends of the University Contribute $2,000 to Rapidly Growing Fund for Building

To the liberal amounts already received from trustees and friends of the University has been added, a gift of $2,000, two checks for $1,000 each, from persons interested in G. W. U. The names of the contributors have not been revealed, but the money is stipulated as being intended for part in the erection of Unit 3. The ground for this will be broken sometime in the near future, according to report.

The building, which is to be at the corner of Twenty-first and H Streets, will be joined to Corcoran Hall and will contain a spacious library, class rooms, laboratories and a women's club room to be presented by the Columbian Women, who are now in the midst of a campaign for the raising of a $10,000 fund for its endowment. The class of '29 has also promised to raise funds for an alcove in the library in Unit 3.

DR. SULLIVAN TO SPEAK AT CHEMISTS' MEETING

"The Role of Sulphur in Chemical Defense" Subject of Talk

The Chemical Society will hold its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, December 15. Dr. M. S. Sullivan will be the speaker at this meeting, having for his subject "The Role of Sulphur in Chemical Defense."

Dr. Sullivan, who is a bio-chemist in the hygienic laboratory, has spoken over the radio several times upon scientific subjects, and the society considers itself very fortunate in being able to obtain a man of such wide experience in the field of chemistry. All chemistry students, as well as the members of the society, are invited to attend.

THE CHERRY TREE IS TAKING SHAPE

Cover and Border Designs Already Selected and General Arrangement Decided

SEVERAL NEW SECTIONS

Staff Editorial Positions Are Announced; Many New Features to be Included

Plans for the 1927 Cherry Tree are rapidly taking shape, according to Robert Stearns, editor-in-chief. Cover and border designs have been selected by the Board of Editors. The cover will be made up of about the same material as was used last year and will again be nonflexible.

General arrangement of the book has been made up in loose-leaf to give the editors a working plan. Humor and photographs are being stressed in this year's edition, and each fraternity and sorority has been asked to submit photos. These should be fairly large, according to the editor, otherwise they will not reproduce well. Several student photographers are at work around the campus getting snapshots.

Sorority data is rapidly taking form and fraternity data will soon be in the hands of the editors. Organizations have been urged to bear in mind that they must have all of their data in by January 15, as that portion of the book will be sent to the printer on that date.

The art editors are at work on ideas which are promised to give the book a new touch. Feature and society editors promise that their sections will be of a newer and more personal type.

In order to cover more of the growing University spirit and activity, several sections of the book have been added to those appearing in former editions. The editors wish to state that if your picture is to appear as a member of the senior or junior class, as an officer of any club or organization, or as a member of a sorority, fraternity, or organization, be sure to go to Edmonston's Studio before January 1, if at all possible, and have your photograph made in order to take advantage of the reduced rate of $2.00. After that date $2.50 will be charged for photos.

Delivery May 15

The book is being edited for delivery on May 15. All matter for every section must be in the hands of the editors by the last of February. Material for the fraternity and sorority sections will be turned over to the printer on January 15.

The Board of Editors consists of Robert Stearns, editor-in-chief; Rowland Lyon, business manager; Jeanne Gravatte, Henry H. James, Elsie Talbert, Ermyrtrude Valden, and Margaret Maize. Editorial positions on the staff have been filled with the exception of law school and medical school editors and are announced as follows:

Activities will be handled by the Dramatic Editor and class data will come under the department of the Senior Editor.

DEBATERS MEET SEVEN SOUTHERN TEAMS ON TRIP

Volstead Modification and Debt Settlement Will be Text Of Speakers

ANOTHER DEFEAT MET AT HANDS OF ROANOKE

S. L. Hoback and W. R. Parker, Virginians, Triumph in Discussions of Intra-Alleed Debt

Edward Gallagher and J. H. Vesey, members of the debating squad, left today for an extended tour through Virginia and North Carolina, where they will debate with seven of the leading teams of the South. Tonight they will meet Randolph Macon and from there go to Chapel Hill for a fray with the University of North Carolina. On December 11th they will go to Emory and Henry, on the 13th to Davidson, and on the 14th to Duke. The last two colleges to be visited are Hampton-Sidney and Roanoke.

While on the trip the George Washington men will debate both the affirmative and negative sides of the questions, "Resolved, That the Volstead Act Should be Amended to Permit the Sale of Light Wines and Beers," and "Resolved, That the United States should Cancel her Inter-Alleed Debts."

On Friday night of this week, Charles F. Seymour and Frank Suter of George Washington will debate the prohibition question with Harry McGallard and M. H. Mouguelsin, of the University of North Carolina. The local team will take the affirmative side, and the debate, which is to be held in Corcoran Hall, will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

Lose to Roanoke

The debating team suffered a defeat Friday night when two of its members met the Roanoke team in a four-man contest in Corcoran Hall. The question was, "Resolved, That the United States Should Cancel her Inter-Alleed Debts."

Ray Harris and George Sanders, representing the Buff and Blue, lost by a 2-1 decision to S. L. Hoback and W. R. Parker, the Virginia duet. The local team alleged that the inter-alleed debts accumulated by the United States were merely gifts of war, and emphasized the fact that the obligated countries had fought America's battles before she entered the war and deserves something in return.

"America's inter-alleed debts should be considered only from a legal standpoint," stated the men from Roanoke. They declared that the United States had given her debtors enough already and that debts once contracted would always be debts regardless of circumstances and relations.

At the end of the rebuttal, which evidenced much more vigor than the constructive speeches, the judges who were Messrs. Thompson, Fridinger, and Kuinlan, handed down a 2-1 decision in favor of Roanoke.

COLUMBIAN WOMEN SCHOLARSHIPS GIVEN

Three Full-time Awards Again Granted to Girls Who Held Them Last Year

Announcement has been made by Mrs. Joshua Evans, Jr., of the awarding of three full-time scholarships and one partial-aid scholarship for the year 1926-1927 under the auspices of the Columbian Women of George Washington University. The three full-time awards have been given to Alice Cooke, Mary Ewin, and Marjorie Folsom, while Lola Evans is the holder of the partial scholarship. All four students are Sophomores.

"The award," said Mrs. Evans, "are gifts, not loans, and are bestowed only after the highest recommendations."

The three winners of the full-time awards were holders of the same scholarships last year.

Mrs. Evans also stated that another, the Elizabeth V. Brown scholarship, administered by the Columbian Women, is as yet unawarded. This scholarship is exclusively for students in Teachers College who are at the same time teaching in the public schools.

The fund of $1,200 upon which the scholarship is based was turned over to the trustees of George Washington University in the spring of 1925. Last year it was not used.

Among the contributors to the fund which honors the memory of the noted teacher, Elizabeth Brown, are her friend, Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, and a number of organizations, including the College Women's Club, Columbian Women of George Washington University, the League of American Pen Women, several chapters of the D. A. R., and the National Civic Federation.

BYERS, HOSPITAL HEAD, ILL

Superintendent J. D. Byers, of the George Washington Hospital, has been ill for the last week. Although his condition is rapidly improving, it will probably be several weeks before he can take up his work again.

A UNIVERSITY CALENDAR

There has been considerable comment on the campus lately in favor of a definite calendar for the University. The Julian Calendar seems to do very well as far as it goes, but our friend Caesar knew nothing about football hops and fraternity dances. The need for a complete and authoritative calendar, listing all University functions, and arranged so that no two affairs conflict, was clearly shown last week when two dances were held at the University on the same evening. One of these affairs was bound to detract from the other. There are doubtless numerous students who would have attended both functions, were they on different nights. This is merely a single instance of such an occurrence. Conflicts such as these will take place until we have a definitely arranged University Calendar.

ASSEMBLY

Assembly hour, the once-called chapel, seems to be a battle between finding standing room in the library and drug store. Thus the effect of the much-needed assembly hour has degenerated to a 45-minute recess period rather than filling Corcoran Hall 1 to capacity, as was the intention when the old program of studies was changed this fall. The faculty and the students seem to have locked horns and both are at a standstill. "Give us interesting speakers and we will come," say the students. "How can we give you interesting speakers until you come," says the faculty. Quits.

It is, emphatically, a problem that must be faced, for at present the system is a hopeless failure. The one redeeming light in the student's favor was that at the Pep meeting and at Glenn Hunter's speech the room was overflowing. This in itself offers a suggestion for the solution of the problem.

ALUMNI SUPPORT

Our Alumni, scattered here and there over the country, cannot attend our games, plays, debates, or social affairs, no matter how active they might have been in student affairs when they were in the University.

They can keep in active touch with the whole University and especially with the activities of the student body by the simple method of subscribing to the Hatchet. From all of our Alumni over the country, organized and unorganized, the Hatchet has three paid subscriptions. Each Alumni organization, no matter where it is, should include in its yearly dues from each member a subscription to the Hatchet.

This is not merely an appeal for Hatchet support, it is an appeal to our old Grads to support our present student body in its activities in the one way that each one of them can, no matter where he or she may be.

HEALTHY REGISTRATION

A recent bulletin shows that there are 179 fewer students in the University at the present time than was the case on the parallel date last year. Registration is now at a standstill, but the February additions will probably bring the figures up to those of last year.

To the casual observer it may seem that G. W. has reached the saturation point and that the remarkable growth evidenced during the past few years will not continue in the same proportion in the future. The University has taken certain steps this year, however, which have caused the slight slump in registration, but which are certainly to be praised because they are a mark of progress along a much sounder line, that of the improvement of the University's scholastic standing. Starting this year the University required that a student must have at least 13 hours of credit from high school before he might be admitted even as a special student and generally tightened its entrance requirements. This step toward a more healthy registration is sure to advance the University in scholastic standing and is to be especially commended.

Phi Sigma was hostess at a delightful rush dance at Brooke Tea House, on Thanksgiving Eve. The guest of honor was Miss Rose Janowitz, national president of the University, who has been a guest of the chapter for the past week.

On Friday, November 26, Phi Sigma Sigma celebrated Founders Day by a luncheon at the Iron Gate Inn. The occasion was heightened by the presence of Dean Rose, Miss Rose Janowitz, national president, and Mrs. John M. Safer, a patroness of the chapter.

Miss Evelyn Jones has presented the George Washington chapter of the Phi Mu fraternity with a scholarship ring, bearing the fraternity seal. The ring will be presented at the end of every year to the new member averaging the best grades for the year, and will serve as a supplement to the Phi Mu Scholarship cup, which can be won only by a member of more than a year's standing. Miss Anne Saure is the first wearer of the ring.

Another G. W. romance has culminated in the betrothal of Miss Rebecca Rhoads, '27 and Mr. Benjamin Henkle, '24.

Mrs. Charles Edison, National President of Phi Mu, made a flying visit here on Wednesday, December 1. She was entertained at luncheon by Beta Alpha chapter.

Miss Marion Barker entertained the Washington Alumnae Association of Phi Mu on Thursday night at her home in Chevy Chase. Two representatives from Beta Alpha chapter were invited.

Beta Alpha chapter of the Phi Mu fraternity entertained with seven tables of bridge at the home of Miss Anita Heurich, 1304 New Hampshire Avenue, on Thursday, December 2.

The George Washington chapter of Phi Mu held a luncheon at Pierre's on Tuesday. Several rushees were entertained.

The pledges of Phi Mu gave a luncheon to the active members of Beta Alpha chapter on Saturday in the chapter rooms.

Alpha Delta Theta had a luncheon on Thursday, December 2, at which a number of rushees were present.

A very enjoyable bridge was given for the rushees of Alpha Delta Theta sorority on Tuesday evening, November 30, at which seven tables of bridge were in progress. Unique tallies and attractive prizes were given.

Alpha Sigma Theta was hostess to some rushees at a baby party at the home of Miss Janet Broadbent on Saturday, the 27th.

Miss Marian Glimmer, president of the Gamma province of the Phi Beta Phi Sorority, who has been visiting the Columbia Alpha chapter, was their guest of honor at a luncheon at the Cafe Pierre, followed by a theater party, Saturday, November 20, 1926.

The Pi Beta Phi Sorority was hostess to a number of freshmen at an informal bridge party held in the sorority rooms, Saturday, December 4, 1926.

Pi Beta Phi entertained the freshmen at their weekly rush luncheon, Wednesday, December 1, 1926.

The active chapter and the Alumni of the Pi Beta Phi sorority were highly entertained at a play given by their three "goats," Friday, December 3, 1926.

Dean Henning, who has been ill at the Garfield Hospital, will return to his home next Monday.

Kappa Delta entertained several Freshmen at dinner Monday night.

Zeta Tau Alpha announces the pledging of Phoebe Talherschmidt.

Alpha Delta Pi held a luncheon in the fraternity rooms on last Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Lerner and Mrs. Tillema, who are new patronesses of the fraternity. Dean Rose was also a guest.

Miss Ann Wrightson was the guest of honor at a dance given by Miss Peggie Engle in Baltimore.

Zeta Tau Alpha entertained several rushees at a bridge at the home of Marie Didden Saturday afternoon.

Preparations are being made for the annual Kappa Sigma Christmas formal to be held at the Chapter House. The fraternity has obtained the cooperation of Mr. Gerald F. Williamson of New York, who is prominent in interior decorating circles to assist in the decorating of the house.

Sigma Phi Epsilon announces the pledging of Charles Kirk.

The Cambridge debaters were entertained at dinner during their stay in Washington by Phi Sigma Kappa and Sigma Nu.

Alpha Delta Pi entertained a number of freshmen at a bridge party in the fraternity rooms on last Wednesday afternoon.

Charles Fleck is wearing a new Acacia pledge pin.

Kenneth Popham, Kappa Sigma, spent the week-end in New York with his mother, who is leaving in the near future for an extended trip abroad.

Alpha Sigma Theta gave a breakfast Friday morning to welcome three new pledges.

The engagement of Mr. Elmer Lee Tarwater of the Acacia Fraternity to Marie Galatzio Duffy has been announced.

The three Cambridge debaters stayed at the Acacia House while in Washington.

Sigma Kappa entertained several rushees at an attractive shack party at Mary Anne Newcomb's shack last Sunday.

Alpha Sigma Theta Sorority announces the pledging of Mary Eunice Chisholm, Rowena Radcliffe, Judith Steele and Margaret Wheeler.

Gamma Beta Pi was hostess Sunday to about forty members, rushees and friends at a delightfully informal party. It was originally intended to be a picnic at Arundel, but due to the inclement weather the plans were changed and the party was given at Virginia Blackstone's new home in Chevy Chase.

Dorothea Matz, Evelyn Fletcher, Betty Moody, and Gladys Blackney attended the Army-Navy game and enjoyed all the accompanying festivities during their stay in Chicago.

CHRISTMAS BOOKS MADE

The girls of the University are making Christmas scrapbooks for children in the local hospitals again this year. Any girls who are interested in making these books should see Miss Jones in the Women's Building to secure the materials.

Contributions for making the scrapbooks, including pictures of interest to children, cambric, or money to buy the materials will also be accepted by Miss Jones. The books may be made in the rooms of the Women's Building or the material may be taken home.

NEWMAN CLUB MEETS

The Newman Club met Tuesday evening in Corcoran Hall. Dr. Cartwright spoke on the life of Cardinal Newman and his position in the Church.

Plans were completed for a dance to be held at the University, December 14. The dance will be in the nature of a get-together affair and no admission will be charged. All Catholic students are invited to attend.

Chips

Now that fur coats seem in vogue among the stronger sex, moustaches seem to fade by comparison.

Dr. Bolwell hasn't published his collection of original maxims yet, but he let this one out Thursday morning—"Tis better to sneeze than to snore."

A freshman wants to know who started that stuff about "The Whole Town's Talking." He tried it in the library and he says it didn't work.

The following communique was received by Dean Rose the other day, inscribed on the reverse side of a copy of The News Notes for Women published by the Dean of Women. The text of the message follows:

"Ladies:
 Yours truly is a full-fledged HE MAN (weight 234) and cannot understand how you got HIM down as a female.
 Sincerely yours,
 (Signed) YEL COWHERD,
 YELVERTON, not 'Nell'."

The moral of this tale, my dear little children, is to ALWAYS write your name so that it cannot be misinterpreted.

Persons passing the Hatchet office Thursday night were slightly suspicious of what was taking place therein. The curtains were tightly drawn and the place lighted, but locked. It was only the Press Club initiating two new members, however, so there wasn't any scandal attached.

Rowland Lyon, pseudo-artist of great renown about the University, tried to become a sharpshooter last week, but the total result of his adventure on the rifle range was a busted watch charm. The rub comes in, however, over the fact that he did not get the chance to bust his own watch charm.

Last week we ran quite a long "chip" about the adventures of a bunch of G. W. lads about Catholic University the night before the Thanksgiving day game. That story has a sequel, however, as anyone can tell you who has seen the large green letters painted on the side of Corcoran Hall by some daring C. U. students after G. W.'s defeat. The letters announce the score, C. U. 17-G. W. 9 in large, bold type.

It would seem, from what one of the co-ednas tells us, that our distinguished dramatic critic, Howard Bursley, received his training while acting in the capacity of usher in the old Garrick Theater, and later in Poll's.

Our esteemed contemporary, The Tower, of Catholic University, has invented a new name for their football team. The issue of December 1 contains the following headline on the front page: "CARDINALS rally to crush G. W." On the third page of the same edition may be seen, "Boxing team now training—many new faces."

Horace Domigan, captain of the G. W. U. cross-country squad, caused considerable merriment last Sunday morning while training for the South Atlantic hill-and-dale run to be held under the auspices of the University. The weather was cold Sunday and the air was filled with flying snow as well as flying spiked shoes, so Horace put a suit of winter underwear over his running clothes, and made the course in nothing flat.

Seeking revenge for the alleged invasion of their sanctum by a gang of G. W. U. students the night before the G. W. U. game, a group of Catholic University students are alleged to have crept up to the north side of Corcoran Hall Thanksgiving night and painted in large green letters the score: C. U. 17-G. W. 9. Anyway the score still is on the white north wall and the paint is still green.

Procy Lewis pulled a good one at the Football Hop last Friday night. He said that the first half of the G. W. C. U. game reminded him of Martha Custis, George Washington's better half. Coach Crum, pleading with the students to get more men out for football, entreated in a plaintive voice, "For the love of peace get the men out." Go to war for "the love of peace," eh?

THAT'S the way P. A. talks to you in the bowl of a pipe. This great national gloom-chaser stabs the darkest clouds with a ray of sunshine. Buy a tidy red tin of Prince Albert today and see. Tamp a load of this friendly tobacco into your jimmy-pipe and light up.

Cool as a sub-cellar. Sweet as the breath of fresh-cut violets. Fragrant in the tin and fragrant as you smoke it. Never a tongue-bite or a throat-parch. So mild you can hit it up from sun-up to sun-down, yet with a body that satisfies completely.

There's more philosophy in a pipe-load of P. A. than in the average Doctor's thesis. No matter what brand you are smoking now, you don't know how much your jimmy-pipe can mean to you until you pack it with good old Prince Albert. Get started now.

OFFICIALS NAMED FOR A. A. U. MEET

Lewis Will Be Honorary Referee; "Hap" Hardell in Actual Charge

COLONIALS' BID STRONG

Outstanding Teams of South Atlantic Association Will Be Entered in 6-Mile Race

Officials for the South Atlantic A. A. U. cross-country championship race, which will be held under the auspices of George Washington University, on the University's course in Rock Creek Park at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of December 18, were announced following a meeting of the committee in charge and the officials of the association at the Acadia House, 1707 Massachusetts Avenue, Friday evening.

President William Mather Lewis will serve as Honorary Referee, while the task of active referee is delegated to Elmer "Hap" Hardell, coach at McKinley Technical High School. The chief judge will be Joseph T. England, President of the Board of Governors, S. A. A. U. The starting signal will be given by James V. Mulligan, of Georgetown University. "Yank" Robbins of the Irish-American Club, will act as clerk of the course.

Five scorers have been chosen. They are: A. Earl Weeks, from the Washington Canoe Club; James T. Ireland, chairman of the District Running Committee, S. A. A. U. and of Emorywood Athletic Club, Baltimore; C. W. Ashley, Southwestern Athletic Association, Baltimore; Richard "Dick" Tennyson, of the D. C. Playgrounds; and Harold Young, President of the Men's G. W. Club.

At the finish line, John O'Reilly, of Georgetown University, William D. Hoffman, of the Emorywood Athletic Club, Baltimore; H. Watson "Maud" Crum, of George Washington; and Harry Knight, of the Washington Canoe Club, will serve in the capacity of judges of the finish.

Official timers will be C. Edward Becket, Director of Physical Education, Y. M. C. A.; J. H. Doyle; Richard "Dick" Conner, of the Board of Trade; James G. McCallister, of Baltimore; and Harry Helm.

Engineers Survey Course

Owen B. French, Professor of Surveying at George Washington, will act as chief surveyor, and supervise the laying out of the course. Prof. French will be assisted by members of his surveying class, whose names will be published later. Roughly, the course will consist of three laps around the circuit made by drawing a line from the starting point at the Million Dollar Bridge through a portion of the Zoo grounds, crossing Rock Creek, and continuing on the opposite bank to the starting point. Checkers who will be posted along the course are to be announced later, according to Milton L. Dennis, manager of the G. W. harriers.

Regulation A. A. U. gold, silver, and bronze medals will be awarded to individuals placing first, second, and third, respectively. A trophy will be given to the team of three scoring the lowest number of points. Each contestant will be charged an entrance fee of fifty cents, while the competition is open to all registered amateurs, both those connected with clubs affiliated with the S. A. A. U. of the A. A. U., and those unattached.

The Colonial cross-country men who will probably start Saturday week are Dominan, captain, Willett, Baker, Pomeroy, Brown, and Johnson. These wearers of the Buff and Blue are conceded to have an excellent opportunity to bring the championship trophy to George Washington.

Thomas F. Proby, George Washington University, as chairman; Milton L. Dennis, George Washington University; Daniel Hassett, Aloysius Club; James T. Ireland, Emorywood Athletic Club, Baltimore; and William Robinson, Hub A. A. Baltimore, constitute the game committee in charge of the championship run.

HOCKEY A MAJOR SPORT

At a meeting of the Committee on Student Affairs held Thursday afternoon, December 2, it was decided to recognize Women's Field Hockey as a major sport. A golf team, to take its place in the curriculum of minor sports, was also authorized.

GIRLS' FENCING SQUAD TO HAVE DAY PRACTICE

Hours of practice for the girls' Fencing squad have been shortened. The evening classes have been discontinued, and practice will be held on Tuesday and Thursday from 1 to 3.

More girls are needed for try-outs before a team can be selected, according to Ruth Jackson, captain of the team. Girls who are interested are urged to report for practice, as it is not yet too late to begin. Matches are pending with the teams of various girls' schools, and it is hoped that the dates will be definitely settled in the near future.

PROMISING COURT SEASON IS SEEN

Most of Regulars Return; New Blood Adds Strength To Squad

WILL MEET WASH. AND LEE

Five Man Defense and Short Passing Game Featured by Lemon; Team Developing Rapidly

By KINGSLAND PRENDER. With the football season over, Coach "Maud" Crum, director of athletics at G. W., is turning his efforts to basketball and has already held four practice sessions in the University Gymnasium.

Jimmy Lemon, former Princeton "flash" and high point scorer in the Eastern collegiate ranks of 1925, is again on hand to help Crum round out a formidable quint.

If the progress shown by the candidates since the initial practice on the evening of December 1, may be taken as a criterion one of the best teams that has ever represented the University might be expected.

Manager George Hamilton Schwin and his assistants, Sherman Johnson and John Organ, are diligently taking care of the needs of the players and have everything in smooth-working condition.

"Reds" Allhouse, Henry Sapp, football captain, Fred Wallace, forwards and John Banton, and Nathan Levin, guards are the veterans around whom the squad will be formed. These men do not necessarily make up the first team for there are many likely-looking basketballers out who will give them a terrific fight.

Strong Squad Appears

Among the promising candidates who have had previous experience with other schools are: I. J. Bland, a short but speedy forward from Cornell, and Ed Hall late of Purdue, Indiana and Michigan.

"Heinie" Veithmeyer, Harold Haun, B. Carey, Allen Perry and Charlie Lopenan are some of the men from the football squad who are endeavoring to get their letters on the court as well as on the gridiron and from their showing so far they stand an excellent chance of doing it.

The Washington high schools are represented by Ford Young of Western, Joseph Motyka, of Eastern, Virgil Gallotta, of Tech and "Jake" Schaffert of Central. Young and Motyka have scintillated in the scrimmages with the former running wild at forward and the latter getting most of the tip-offs at center.

Barrows, Evans and Bowen are three of the fastest and most natural ball-tossers to report. Evans has an uncanny eye for locating the iron hoop.

There have been several combinations working together. In one group are Bland, Sapp, Allhouse, Levin, Carey, Veithmeyer, and Haun. These men scrimmage with another combination generally composed of Young, Motyka, Lopenan, Banton, Barrow, Evans, and Bowen.

Lemon is perfecting the five-man defense and the short passing game. He is stressing the follow-up shot and team play.

Allhouse Acting Captain

The captain has not yet been named, but for the present "Reds" Allhouse is acting in that capacity. "Allhouse," said Coach Crum, "is the type of man most desired in athletics. He has carried a full course since entering the University and has been an outstanding player in football and basketball. Henry Sapp is also an example of the kind of athlete we want."

The 1926-27 schedule is not ready for publication but the season is likely to start on December 17 with a game between the Colonials and Washington and Lee, followed by one with the University of Pittsburgh in the G. W. Gym. The officials are angling for games with Lafayette, Fordham, Sewanee, Davis-Elkins, Geneva, and Loyola. Catholic University and Lynchburg are practically certain to be met. Most of the games will be played at home giving the fans abundant opportunity to see their favorites in action.

Coach Crum wishes to announce that all Freshmen who desire to try out for the yearling team should report to the first practice in the Gym today at 3:30 p. m.

Picking an All-District football team representing the cream of the talent shown on local fields is not a simple task. The selections made above constitute the consensus of opinion of the sports writers of the Hatchet, and will undoubtedly meet with severe criticism among the followers of the game in the colleges and universities in this city.

In selecting the men for these elevens, the writers have made their choice on a strictly impartial basis, and have endeavored to find the outstanding performers and place them on this mythical aggregation, regardless of the school which they represent. The Hatchet sports writers have followed all the local elevens closely during the season which has just closed. The entire season has been taken into account, and consistent playing, as well as brilliant work are among the chief requirements.

Two years ago the Hatchet published an All-District team, picked by the letter men of the University. This method proved impracticable last year, and the two sports writers of the Hatchet selected two mythical elevens. This was the first All-District team published last season, and one of the local papers printed the selection in toto.

Five Georgetown players are given places on the first eleven, while Catholic University and George Washington furnish three men each. The second team is made up of four Hatchettes, three each from Catholic University and Georgetown, and one from American University. On the third team, George Washington and the Brookland Institution each place four men, Georgetown two, and Galaudet one.

Sapp Is Named Pilot

In the backfield, Henry Sapp, captain of the George Washington eleven appears to be the outstanding player and draws the quarterback position. Sapp is a real triple threat man. He

EPISCOPAL CLUB WILL MEET WITH MARYLAND

Official Insignia Adopted; Coleman Jennings Speaks; Page to Appear in Cherry Tree

The Episcopal Club met Thursday, December 2, in Corcoran Hall. Several important matters were discussed and it was decided to hold a joint meeting with the Episcopal Club of the University of Maryland sometime in the near future.

The question of whether the club pin was to be club insignia, or merely a badge of merit, to be worn by a few was brought up for settlement. It was unanimously decided that the pin was club insignia, to be worn by all members in good standing. Qualifications necessary to permit a member receiving a pin were set as: being a member in good standing, and the "attendance of said member at two or more consecutive meetings of the club."

The club appropriated twenty dollars from the treasury to reserve a page in the 1927 Cherry Tree. To raise the needed money a card party and dance has been planned, to take place about the middle of this month. Howard Clark, A. P. Joyner, Louise Ward, and James Duncan were the committee appointed to make arrangements for this function.

Coleman Jennings, the speaker of the evening, told of the inception and continuation of "Toc-H," a war-time organization started by the Church of England.

The next meeting of the club will be held on Thursday, December 16, at 8 p. m., in Corcoran Hall. Miss Lane, vice-president of the Smith College Episcopal Club last year will speak on the work of the Smith unit.

Clyde Tolson Named For Senior Law Head

Will Oppose William Wilkins; Elections to Have Been Held Yesterday in Stockton Hall

Nominations for Senior Class officers at the Law School were held at Stockton Hall last Friday night, December 3. Martin Casey, president of the Senior Class of 1926, presided over the nominating caucus. A partial list of those nominated for the various offices is as follows: President, Clyde Tolson, William Wilkins; Vice President, Ellis Bever, I. M. Stewart; Secretary, Margaret Conlyn; Treasurer, George L. Woodruff; Senate, Cameron Sherwood, Thomas Mount, and Hazel Newton. It was impossible to secure the complete list of candidates, but it is believed that this lacks only a very few names.

At the time of this writing Senior elections on the above candidates were to have been held last Tuesday, in Stockton Hall. After several postponements it was definitely decided that Junior Class elections were to be held last Monday. The next issue of the Hatchet will contain the outcome of these elections if they took place as scheduled.

is fast, is a cunning field general, and is one of the most accurate passers ever seen hereabouts. While he did not draw the regular punting assignment for his team, he is a consistent kicker, getting his punts off fast and well down the field.

Thompson, of Georgetown, is rated a trifle better than the other backs and is placed at fullback. He was one of the leading lights in the Blue and Gray's powerful offense, hits the line like a battering ram, and is a punter of considerable talent. For the halfback berth, Bucky O'Neill, of the Hilltoppers is given the call over the other aspirants. His specialty consists of running the ends, and is adept at snaring passes. His defensive work has been a prominent feature of the Blue and Gray secondary. Bill Harvey, of the Cardinals, is chosen as his running mate. Harvey is one of the fleetest ball-carriers seen here, and is a consistent all-around backfield man.

Several sterling wingmen stand out this year, but McGrath, of Georgetown and Carey of the Colonial outfit loom a shade better than the other ends. They are given the flank positions in preference to Long and Waite. Carey and McGrath do just about everything that an end should do, and do it well.

The tackle positions are the toughest ones to fill, but Viethmeyer of G. W. and Du Four of the Brookland aggregation are picked over the other candidates. This pair played havoc with opposing lines, tearing great gaps through which their teammates ran. They are both fast, getting down under punts and nailing their men.

"Babe" Connaughton, redoubtable Hilltop guard, and "Big Joe" Tierney of C. U. stand out head and shoulders above the rest of the guardsmen, and are veritable towers of strength. Grigsby of Georgetown rates the snapper-back position. His passes are consistently good, and his presence would add power and punch to any line.

POLY SCI CLUB TO BE INTERNATIONAL BODY

Local Unit Plans to Join Organization Supplied by Carnegie Fund of New York

The Political Science Club of George Washington is making plans to ally itself with the National Organization of International Relations Clubs. This body receives aid from the Carnegie Endowment in New York. It furnishes a limited number of books yearly for the use of the clubs allied with it. The Carnegie Endowment also provides lecturers who go from club to club and speak on subjects pertinent to the subject of political science.

Mr. Hasskarl presided at the meeting Tuesday night. A faculty advisor was to have been chosen, but the selection was postponed until the following meeting.

the best opening tilts offered local fans in several years.

Rutgers will act as host to the fighting Colonials at New Brunswick, N. J., on October 15.

The team will return October 22 for what will probably be their biggest home game.

Meet Fordham Here

This game is with Fordham, one of the best-known and strongest elevens in the East, and the game should evoke enthusiasm among the local fans and sport writers.

The last game in October will be played on the 29th with Uralus at Collegeville, Pa.

Before returning home the Colonials pit themselves against the onslaught of the ferocious Nittany Lions at State College, Pa. Coach Hugo Bedek will have his men in their best form and the Colonials will have a tough assignment to reverse the 20-12 decision gained by the Penn Staters this season.

There is an open date on November 12, but Crum doubtlessly will have a prominent aggregation booked for that date soon.

Catholic University will be met in the annual tilt either on November 19 or on Turkey Day. This will mark a titting climax to what the Colonial coaches hope will be the most successful season in the gridiron history of the institution.

The Schedule Reads:

October 1, City College of New York at New York City.
October 8, open date, here.
October 15, Rutgers, at New Brunswick, N. J.
October 22, Fordham, here.
October 29, Uralus, at Collegeville, Pa.
November 5, Penn State, at State College, Pa.
November 12, open, here.
November 19 or Thanksgiving Day, Catholic U., at Brookland.

Varsity Court Girls Train For New Tilts

Class Games to Be Played off Soon, Sorority Frays Slated for Spring

Virginia Hopkins, coach, is antcipating a brilliant season for the women's basketball team. Many of last year's squad have returned and some promising new-comers have been observed.

Practice is being held Tuesdays at 7:30 for the Freshmen and Juniors, and Thursdays at 7:30 for Sophomores and Seniors. Monday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons from 2 to 4 are being devoted to general practice.

Interclass games are to be played just before the Christmas holidays and from the class teams the varsity squad will be chosen to represent the University in its intercollegiate schedule. Varsity practice will begin January 1, although there has been some talk of practice during the holidays if the girls are willing.

MAINE FIRST TEAM ON GIRLS' RIFLE SCHEDULE

Match Will Be Shot Saturday, Will Have Matches Every Week Until March 26

Walter Stokes, coach, put the Girls' Varsity Rifle Squad through a practice match last Saturday on the local range.

The team showed up unusually well and prospects are very bright for a victory over the University of Maine on Saturday. Marjorie Folsom, Helen Prentiss, and Ermyrtrude Valden made possible scores, while Helen Taylor and Mae Huntzberger scored "99's." These five girls will make up the upper part of the team of ten which will shoot next Saturday.

Beginning next Saturday the girls' team has a series of matches each week through March 26, 1927.

The beginners' squad which was cut to about thirty last week, is showing excellent form and should supply good varsity material later in the season.

SENIOR TEACHERS ELECT

Results of the senior elections of Teachers' College, which were held last month, have been determined as follows: President, Betty Armentrout 22, Eva Lewis 12; vice president, Grace Young 20, Katherine Shoemaker 12; secretary, Catherine Ruth 14, Ruth Smith 13; treasurer, Marie Didden 14, Marjorie Mothershead 13; sergeant-at arms, Winifred Williams unanimous.

CENTRAL CLUB MEETS

The Central Club will meet on Wednesday, December 8, in the Sigma Kappa rooms, Building 10, third floor front, at 8 p. m.

There will be a very short business meeting followed by a social evening. All Centralites are invited.

A. S. M. E. MEETS

The G. W. student branch of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers has elected William H. Sequist as its representative to the national convention of that body which is being held in New York City, December 6-9.

DR. PIERCE SPEAKS

"Sometimes something struck off in a moment may prove a perpetual inspiration," asserted Dr. Pierce, speaker at the Friday morning chapel. As an example, Mr. Pierce cited the perseverance of the composers of "Onward Christian Soldiers," which hymn, he said, is the militant hymn of the church.

COLONIAL SHOTS BEAT COLUMBIA

G. W. Scores 1428 Points, New Yorkers 1410, in Close Contest

MEET BOSTON TECH NEXT

Inter-Collegiate Rifle League Competitions to be Held Shortly After Christmas

Shooting its way to another victory the G. W. Men's Rifle team defeated Columbia in the telegraphic match of last week.

A close score resulting on the points scored by the five highest on each team gave the decision to the Colonial sharpshooters with 1,428 against the New Yorkers' 1,410.

The five men on the Hatchette team whose scores were the highest and were therefore used as a basis of decision were Leigh and Crockett with a total of 289, Riley with 286, Strawbridge with 286, and Schriker with 279.

Others competing on the G. W. team scored as follows:

Plugge	279
Lane	278
Radue	276
Campbell	274

An interesting battle is scheduled for next week, when the Colonials test their skill against Massachusetts Institution of Technology.

Inter-Collegiate Matches Soon

Shortly after the Christmas holidays the inter-collegiate Rifle League competitions will be held.

There are several leagues graded according to the merits of the various colleges included therein. George Washington, through the superiority and excellence already attested, is placed in Class A.

Should the Hatchette team defeat the other colleges in League A's schedule its championship will be doubly gratifying because of the real mettle naturally included in the leading league.

The schedule for these matches are as follows:

First week, University of Penn.
Second week, Norwich University.
Third week, Penn State.
Fourth week, Virginia Polytechnic Institution.
Fifth week, Georgetown University.
Sixth week, Columbia University.
Seventh week, Boston University.

Dean Lapham Speaks Before Faculty Club

Is Second Speaker in Series Planned By Prof. Donaldson, President of Club

The Faculty Club of George Washington University held an informal luncheon Thursday, December 2. Professor Donaldson, president of the club, arranged at the beginning of the year a series of talks on phases of the University work to be given at the meetings. The first of this series was delivered by Professor Elmer Louis Kayser, on student life in medieval universities.

At the meeting last week the speaker was Dean John R. Lapham, of the College of Engineers. His subject was "Trends in Engineering Education." According to Dr. Donaldson, one of the most interesting phases of the subject was Dean Lapham's discussion of the reports rendered recently by a national committee of prominent engineers who investigated engineering problems in educational institutions throughout the United States.

WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB TO SING AT XMAS CONCERT

The Women's Choral Society will give a concert at the Sanitarium for Tubercular patients on Christmas eve, in accordance with the custom of glee clubs to sing at least once a year before a charitable institution. The club will sing at chapel on Wednesday, December 22, their selections including Christmas carols. Plans are also being made for a concert to be given in the near future.

LEWIS SPEAKER AT FOOTBALL HOP

Athletic Record Board Presented By G. W. Club is Unveiled

COACH CRUM MAKES TALK
Proceeds of Dance to Defray Expense of Inter-Class Track and Field Meet

More than 150 couples gathered in the G. W. gymnasium last Friday night at the annual football hop given in honor of the Colonial football men and held under the auspices of the Men's G. W. Club. Johnny Slaughter and his Hotel Powhatan orchestra furnished music for the evening and the hall was attractively decorated with the banners of the fraternities and sororities of the campus.

During intermission a short ceremony was held, during which speeches were made by President William Mather Lewis and Coach "Maud" Crum, and one of the record boards presented the University by the Men's G. W. Club was unveiled.

"These record boards are just another example of the added interest in athletics being evidenced in the University," said President Lewis, opening his address. He then brought in an amusing incident along the line of the increasing interest being displayed throughout the country with regard to athletics. "Recently," said the speaker, "an athletic association has been formed among the prisoners at Sing Sing. The men were assembled and asked what form of athletics they would prefer. They voted to hold a cross-country run."

1927 Team in G. W.

Another humorous touch followed. Speaking about the record boards, the president said that they contained spaces for the champions in inter-class track activities for twenty-four years, "long enough for some of you to get your name on it before you graduate."

"In the University," continued Dr. Lewis, "is the 1927 football team. Part of that team has never played football. If all the men at this hop played football it would be a different story. Carry with you throughout the year the fact that our team of next year is in George Washington University this year."

He commended the football team for its excellent showing this year, praised Coach Crum, and thanked Manager Tennyson for what he had done to make the season a success.

President Young of the Men's G. W. Club, who had charge of the program, then introduced Coach Crum. The coach followed President Lewis' line of talk with regard to the one-year rule going into effect next year. Announces Schedule

"Our installation of the one-year rule has put the University on a higher basis and a higher plane." "But we must have someone on our team if we are to play good teams. This season but one man reported for the team after we came in from training camp. Last year we had but two men from the 1924 team to report for practice. This year we had five men. For the love of peace get the men out next year."

Crum then announced the 1927 football schedule, which contains the names of some of the strongest teams in the East. He commended the Men's G. W. Club and the Freshmen football team in closing.

Captain Sapp was to have made a speech, but disappeared and could not be located. President and Mrs. Lewis, Coach Crum, Prof. and Mrs. Doyle and Prof. and Mrs. Donaldson acted as chaperons. The hop was in charge of George B. Martin, chairman, John A. Plugge, and H. Clay Espey. Proceeds of the dance will go first to defray the expenses of the annual inter-class Track and Field meet held in the spring under the auspices of the Men's G. W. Club, and the remainder will be turned over to the student activity fund to aid in the financing of the minor sporting activities of the University.

Special dance numbers promised for the evening failed to materialize.

Copy of Reports is Given to Law School
John S. Flannery, Prominent Local Attorney, Gives Complete Set to Maury Memorial Library

A complete set of "United States Reports" was recently received as a gift from Mr. John S. Flannery, prominent local attorney, by the Maury Memorial Library of the George Washington University Law School. These volumes are leather bound and were originally presented to Mr. Flannery by Professor William A. Maury, in whose memory the Law School Library was named.

Professor Maury was a member of the Law School Faculty for twenty-nine years, which is a service record that has not yet been equalled by any other instructor.

During this long term, at various times he taught Common Law Pleading, Equity Pleading, Equity, Evidence, Partnership, Federal Procedure, and Insurance. Besides his activities in behalf of George Washington University he also held many important positions in the legal world. At one time he was Assistant Attorney General of the United States.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDED TO YOUNGEST FRESHMAN

Sylvia Altman, who was admitted in September at the age of 13, as the youngest student at G. W., has added another to her scholastic and musical attainments. She has recently been awarded a scholarship to the Alfred Cortot School of Piano, where she will be under the personal direction of the great musician himself.

This award was given to Miss Altman by Cortot who met her about two years ago, and has since that time given her considerable encouragement.

HOOR GLASS ELECTS FIVE TO MEMBERSHIP

Blackstone, Brandenburg, Huntzberger, Omwake, and Schwartz Are Honored by Society

The Hour Glass Honor Society announces the recent election of five co-eds who have been outstanding in campus activities during their attendance at the University.

Virginia Blackstone is a junior. She was assistant manager of tennis for two years, and this year is manager; played hockey for two years in inter-sorority basketball and bowling. She was assistant sorority editor of the 1926 Cherry Tree, and is sorority editor of the 1927 yearbook. She has been a member of the Y. W. C. A. for three years, attending the Eaglesmere Conference in 1926 as the G. W. U. delegate, and is finance chairman of that organization. She is a member of the Art Promoters, Episcopal and Central Clubs. She is a member of Gamma Beta Pi Fraternity.

Betty Brandenburg, also a junior, has been a member of the varsity Hockey squad for two years and of the varsity basketball team 1924-25-26. She has been active during the past two years in dramatics, was out for swimming, and is a member of the Y. W. C. A. She is a member of Chi Omega Fraternity.

Crack Shot Active

Mae Huntzberger, a senior, is outstanding in rifle, having been one of the crack shots on the varsity team since her Freshman year, and winning her major letter each year. She played on the varsity Hockey squad last year and has been a member of the Women's G. W. Club since 1924. She has been a member of the Glee Club for three years and a reporter on the Hatchet staff since 1925. She was a member of the Y. W. C. A. in 1924-25, the Social Service chairman in 1924-25-26, and is the vice-president this year.

Louise Omwake is a junior, a scholarship student, and during her first two years at the University has distinguished herself in a number of fields of activities, but particular in athletics, having been awarded her G. W. in basketball, tennis and hockey. She has played on both varsity and class basketball teams since 1924, was assistant manager of varsity basketball in 1925-26 and is manager for the 1926-27. She played varsity tennis two years and won through to the semi-finals last year; in hockey she has been a member of both the varsity and class squads for three years and has played in inter-sorority basketball since 1924. In her Freshman year she was out for swimming and won third place in track.

Member G. W. Club

She has been a member of the G. W. Club for two years; is now secretary of the Y. W. C. A. having been a member since 1924, and one year attending the Eaglesmere Conference as delegate. She was assistant sports editor of the 1926 Cherry Tree and is sports editor for the 1927 edition. She was a member of the group who underwent the so-called "Sleepless test" last year in connection with Professor Moss' research in psychology, and is a member of the Psychological Research Society. She is a member of Gamma Beta Pi Fraternity.

Margaret Schwartz, a senior, has been a member of the business staff of the Hatchet for three years. Last year she was assistant manager of hockey and is manager for 1926-27. She has been a member of the Y. W. C. A. since 1924. She was president of the Junior Class in Teachers' College, a member of the Junior Week committee, and was active in the Endowment Drive in 1924. She is a member of Chi Omega Fraternity.

THE DRAMA

CRAIG'S WIFE

"Craig's Wife" by George Kelley, awarded the Pulitzer prize as the best play of 1925, is presented at the National Theatre this week. In the cast are Chrystal Herne, Anne Sutherland, Isabel Irving, and Arling Alaine. The drama had a run of ten months in New York.

I quote from the criticism of George Jean Nathan in the Mercury: "Of the recent attempts at serious American dramatic writing, 'Craig's Wife,' by George Kelley, is most interesting. Its character drawing is sharp and sound; its theme is found upon a good brand of critical observation; its dramatic movement is natural and conducted with a minimum of arbitrary devices conventional to the native dramatist, and is as ably produced and acted as the American stage has shown us in some time."

WHAT NEVER DIES

David Belasco is presenting, for the first time in America, E. H. Sothern in "What Never Dies," by Alexander Engel, Austria's foremost playwright. It will be interesting to follow the reviews here and in New York for the verdict on the performance of the

CLARISSA BROOKS WAS G. W. U. GRAD

Noted Poetess Who Died Oct. 19 Was Famous in Literary World

WORKS LAUDED BY CRITICS

Was Prominent in Washington Society and Belonged to Many Clubs

Mention was recently made in the Hatchet of the death of Clarissa Brooks Tufts Jenks, a graduate of George Washington University. Mrs. Jenks, or Clarissa Brooks as she is known throughout the literary world, received the degree of A. B. in 1901. She died at St. Joseph Sanatorium, Albuquerque, New Mexico, on October 19, after an illness of ten years.

Noted critics both here and abroad praised the work of Clarissa Brooks even while it was in its early stages. It was the selection of her first published poem, "Casement Windows," by Christopher Morley for reprinting that encouraged her to develop her talent for writing. This poem, "Casement Windows," now widely known, appeared first in The Boston Herald and was then chosen for reprinting in The Bowling Green Anthology.

Poems Popular

Her poems have appeared in such papers as the New York Sun, the New York Evening Telegram, the New York Evening Post, and the Boston Herald for a number of years, besides being printed frequently in poetry and fiction magazines.

The most popular of her poems include "Anchorage," "Minutiae," "Glory of Youth," "Surrender," "Casement Windows," "The Mother of the Madonna," and "Love and Death."

Mrs. Jenks was born at Atchison, Kansas, in 1880, of old New England stock. Her freshman year was spent at Midland College, Kansas. She then came with her family to Washington, D. C., and resumed her studies at Columbian College of George Washington University, from which she graduated in 1901.

Interested in Science

Feeling a strong call to aid those whose health prevented their enjoyment of vigorous activity, Mrs. Jenks decided to make osteopathy her profession, as the application of this science had bettered her own health and had also given her an insight into the field of medicine. In 1905, after she had received a diploma from the American School of Osteopathy, located at Kirksville, Missouri, she returned to Washington and practiced her profession for several years. Her career as an osteopath was forsaken only when the pressure of home duties seemed to demand it.

Besides being prominent in Washington society, Mrs. Jenks belonged to a number of organizations, among which are the League of American Pen Women, the Bookfellow, the American Literary Association, and the Pi Beta Sorority.

During the last ten years or so of her life Mrs. Jenks devoted her time solely to writing. The sweet optimism, the courage, and the breadth of view displayed in all her work make the poems of Clarissa Brooks everywhere liked and long to be remembered.

CENTRAL CLUB MEETS TONIGHT

The next meeting of the Central Club will be held in the Sigma Kappa rooms tonight at 8 o'clock. The session will be in the form of a social, with dancing and refreshments.

GET YOUR PHOTO!

Sittings for pictures for the Cherry Tree may be taken at any time at Edmonston's Studio, 610 13th St. N. W. The sitting will cost $2, being $2.50 after January 15. All Juniors and Seniors are urged to have their pictures taken at once.

RETURN OF PETER GRIMM

"The Return of Peter Grimm," David Belasco's novel and stage success, is now offered as a photoplay, appearing at the Metropolitan this week. David Warfield's former starring vehicle is now entrusted to the eminent character actor, Alex. B. Francis. By all means read the novel and go to see the picture.

Chief Capolician, a member of the Metropolitan Opera Company, will appear in concert.

STELLA DALLAS

"Stella Dallas," Olive Higgins Prouty's study of the narrow sphere of living of a woman incapable of aught but narrow views, and the blighting of her happiness as she struggles between mother love and the seeking of her portion of romance, has swayed readers and audiences for many years, and now the opportunity is here to see a worthy film production. I quote the News concerning its merits:

"It is a wholesome, intelligent thing the movie people have done with 'Stella Dallas.' The story is handled as it was conceived—with beautiful simplicity. Belle Bennett honors herself and her profession with her performance of the pitiful Stella. Alice Joyce hangs another picture in her gallery of notable characterizations." Howard Bursley.

Byron John to Head Club of Ministers

At Next Meeting Members Will Speak on Modern Religious Cults

On Monday, November 22, the Ministerial Club held its first meeting for the year, at which Byron Wilson John was elected President, and Gerard Snell, Secretary-Treasurer. The next meeting is scheduled for Monday, the 6th of December, and there will be short talks by various members on modern religious cults, such as Christian Science and Theosophy, after committees have been appointed to carry on the various activities in which the organization is interested.

The Ministerial Club is an association for ministers and those students who are contemplating entering the ministry or some social service work. There is one project, especially, which the club will work diligently to put through this year—the establishment in the University curriculum of Bible Courses and other courses relating in some way to religion.

MASONIC CLUB HOLDS ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The Masonic Club will elect this year's officers at a meeting today. Although the club has met several times this fall, no definite plans for the year have been made. The club expects to make a drive for new members before long, as the present membership, which stands at about one hundred, is only a small percentage of the Masons in the University. Any Mason who is connected with the University, whether as student or as professor, is eligible to membership.

ALUMNI MEET

The officers and general committee of the Alumni Association met at Dr. Hornaday's apartment at the Mayflower Hotel, Monday evening, November 29, to discuss plans for the football dinner.

The association held its last monthly luncheon at the Hotel Lafayette, Dean John R. Lapham spoke.

PORTRAIT PRESENTED

The University is in receipt of a portrait of Walter Reed, for whom the Walter Reed Hospital was named, the painting is to be hung in the University Hospital, where Dr. Reed was a former member of the faculty.

DEAN ROSE IS SPEAKER

Dean Rose delivered an address last Friday before the Maryland Association of Deans of Women of the Colleges, held at Goucher College in Baltimore. The subject of her address was "Objective Standards of Measuring Academic Achievement."
